

NEW Clover Cookers Club

Youth cooking club open to 4th-12th graders through Washington County Extension/4-H

JOIN US in the kitchen as a CLOVER COOKER!

What: NEW youth cooking club to provide hands-on learning through long term club experience. Explore the tasty fun of the kitchen through new recipes each month while including topics such as the basics of food and kitchen safety, healthy recipe substitutes, snacks on the go, meal planning and serving etiquette. We look forward to preparing a family dinner, outdoor cooking adventures, and helping other youth groups. Further develop life skills of team work, planning, math, reading and more all in the kitchen!

When: Oct 21, Dec 16, Feb 17, Apr 21, June 16
2 p.m.—4 p.m.

Where: Washington County Farm Bureau Building, 427 Hwy 1 & 92 South

Who: Open to 4th-12th grade students. Not required to be a 4-H member previously.

How: Contact Washington County Extension Office, 319-653-4811. $30 club fee. Limited space available.

Why: Increase knowledge and cooking experience, make new friends, work as a team, gain new recipes for your personal kitchen, develop communication skills, and HAVE FUN!
