

I Can...

Behavioral Sciences

- identify a culture and what makes up that culture.
- explain how groups form in our environment and how they influence society.

Economics

- distinguish between economic systems and how they impact nations and its citizens.

Financial Literacy

- identify the difference between needs and wants.
- demonstrate how to allocate my income for spending, saving, and giving.
- explain the difference between credit cards, gift cards, and savings accounts.
- identify the advantages and disadvantages between various savings tools.
- describe how to protect my identity.

Geography

- read and analyze maps to explain the region, environment, and cultural characteristics.
- explain the cultural, physical, and environmental characteristics of places and regions and how it affects people and where they live.
- explain how changes in transportation, communication, and technology have influenced the movement of goods, people, and ideas in various countries.
- explain how global changes in population affect land use in certain countries or regions.

History

- analyze connections between historical events and developments within regions and cultures.
- explain how and why people's perspectives have changed throughout events in history.
- explain causes and effects from events in history.
- compare Iowa's geography, natural resources, and climate to other parts of the world.