

I Can...

Geography

- read and explain different types of map projections.
- recognize the relationship between people and their environment.
- explain the reasons people have settled in an area.
- recognize the relationship between historical events and distribution of populations.
- understand the relationships and influence different countries and regions of the world have with one another.
- recognize the impact human behavior on the environment.
- explain the impact of natural disasters on an area and how they affect trade, politics and migration.

Iowa History

- identify Iowan relationship and influence on Iowa's environment and culture.