Clark and Helen Carmichael Scholarship
$300

This scholarship was established in memory of Clark and Helen Carmichael, lifelong residents of Adams County and graduates of Corning High School. Clark graduated in 1924 and Helen graduated in 1928. They were both advocates of lifelong learning and appreciated the merits of an education beyond high school.

Their son, Larry Carmichael, received his degree from Iowa State University in education and received further aviation training in the army. Larry was a pilot for TransWorld Airlines for 28 years.

Their daughter, Sally Carmichael-Hosfelt, received a bachelor's degree in Home Economics from Simpson College and a masters degree in deaf education from the University of Nebraska-Omaha, and has had a long career in deaf education in the Des Moines school system.
