

“Please remember you are making comments in a public meeting. Should you make comments that are considered defamatory in nature, you, as an individual, may be subject to legal action brought by the subject of your comments. Board members will listen to all comments but will not respond to them, nor will the Board take action on items not posted on the agenda. If the Board feels that something commented on requires a response, they will refer it to the District Administration to respond at a later date.”

Generally, it is recommended, prior to adjournment, that the board president announce that the board will meet as provided in IOWA CODE § 20.17(3) for a collective bargaining strategy session following adjournment.

Such an announcement will let the audience know what is taking place and the legal authority for the strategy session. Using this procedure will allow the board to complete its agenda and let the people attending the meeting know that no further action or discussion will take place at the meeting.

29. Adjourn

Exempt Session for per Iowa Code Section

Immediately following the meeting.

- I. Bargaining sessions, strategy sessions of boards or employee organizations, mediation and the deliberative process of arbitrators in a collective bargaining process are exempt from the open meetings law. IOWA CODE § 20.17(3). Burlington Community School District v. Public Employment Board. 268 N.W.2d 517, 524 (Iowa 1978).
- II. To discuss strategy in matters relating to employment conditions of employees not covered by collective bargaining law. Iowa Code 21.9.
